

Tasmanian Seasonal Produce Guide

Visit and experience Tasmanian farms and businesses to buy local fruit and produce.

Welcome to the shed door

Tasmania's bountiful supplies of fruit are renowned for their delicious flavour and are recognised by food connoisseurs across the world. Our mild temperate maritime climate provides the ideal environment for slow maturation and flavour development.

The state's topography and geography allows for niche micro-climates throughout the state and provides a diversity of produce to be harvested from early summer through to late autumn.

The fruit industry in Tasmania is one of the oldest and has shaped the future of many regions including the Huon Valley and Tamar Valley. Today the Tasmanian fruit industry continues to expand and is focused on providing premium quality fruit to national and overseas markets.

The Tasmanian Seasonal Produce Guide has been designed for locals and visitors alike to source some of the freshest produce direct from the grower. Grab a bag of fresh apples, cherries or seasonal vegetables, a punnet of delicious berries, or a box of seasonal stone fruit and snack on them as you travel around and enjoy the wonderful Tasmanian scenery.

Relax and enjoy your tour around the state and revel in the abundance of delicious fresh fruits and vegetables grown in one of the most ideal environments in the world.

Seen a serious plant pest or disease?

See it. Secure it. Report it.

People can carry diseases, pests and weed seeds without realising. We've come up with some simple guidelines to help keep our plants happy and healthy.

- Check your vehicle, shoes and clothing are clean before entering the farm
- Obey all farm biosecurity signs and other instructions
- Do not walk off the designated pathways into production areas; they're not ready to be picked yet
- Please don't bring your pet dog along on farm visits
- Let the grower know if you have visited any similar berry farms or orchards recently
- Park your vehicles in the designated parking area

WE'LL KEEP DOING THIS TO KEEP ON TOP OF COVID

KEEPING WORKPLACES COVID-SAFE

Visits to workplaces by WorkSafe inspectors are one of the many ways that the Tasmanian Government is keeping on top of COVID.

All workplaces are required to meet minimum standards to be COVID-safe. The best way for workplaces to demonstrate that these standards are met is to record it through a COVID-19 Safety Plan.

By ensuring that everyone's doing their part in controlling the risks of COVID, together, we're helping to keep workers, customers, and the community safe.
